Dear John Allen,

Please forgive the delay in writing but I have been quite sick since the Arlington meeting. I am feeling much better now and look forward to seeing you in Abilene in two weeks.

It is difficult to express in words my very deep affection for you and your work. More than anything else I appreciate your commitment. We have many young men with outstanding ability (including yourself) but I am troubled about their dedication.

I believe you have found your area of service for the Lord and I know you plan to devote your best efforts to it.

Your thinking and example of service have affected my life profoundly. I admire your boldness in standing for what you believe.

During the meeting you were most helpful to me through our discussions on every subject. You also helped me by demonstrating concern for the Elias Johanson family. This "stirred the spirit" within me.

In these ways and so many I can't express I consider it a wonderful privilege to have come in contact with you.

Thanks for showing me the better way.

Sincerely,

Harold
